05/09/11 2115 hrs.	Farmwell Rd./Ashburn Village Blvd. Ashburn	Pedestrian Fatality: An accident involving two pedestrians struck by a single vehicle has resulted in the death of a boy and the serious injury of an adult female. The accident occurred at approximately 9:15 PM last night (Monday, May 9th). As the pair were attempting to cross Farmwell Rd. at Ashburn Village Blvd., they were struck by a vehicle traveling westbound through the unlit intersection. The child was transported to the Inova Loudoun Hospital in Lansdowne, where he was pronounced dead. The woman who was with him, believed to be his mother, was airlifted to the Fairfax Trauma Center, where her condition is believed to be stable. A family member is with her. The identity of the victims will not be released until all family members have been properly notified. The Loudoun County Sheriff's Office Accident Reconstruction Unit is handling the investigation. The driver of the vehicle remained on the scene and has been cooperative. Neither alcohol nor speed is believed to be a factor. No one has been charged with any violations. C2011-007030
